Synopsis

A long, long, long time ago (Over 150 Million Years to be precise) the first intelligent humans walked the Earth. They had advanced technology that allowed them to travel the Universe in search of other intelligent life forms.

Since that time four generations of humans have existed on earth and each type of human was destroyed with the exception being the current generation that exists today.

Now the first generation of humans has returned to Earth and they have created The SUPER 7 GIRLS to protect modern humans from disasters and each other.

The SUPER 7 GIRLS are 7 Teen Girl Super Heroes with incredible powers they use to help humanity whenever it needs it. They are 7 beautiful girls that were all born on January 1st exactly one year apart from each other on the 7 continents of Earth. The first of the Super 7 was born 18 years ago and the youngest only 12 years ago.

The Super 7 Girls are:

Europa - 18

The beautiful brunette Dr. Europa Jones was born on January 1st only 18 years ago. Her brilliant mind was recognized early and she became the youngest person to ever graduate from a famous London Medical School. She lives in London with her father a doctor and her mother a teacher.

OZ – 17

OZ was also born on January 1st one year after Europa was born. She lives in Sydney Australia with her parents and is a stunning red headed beauty. OZ is a math genius and her gifted mind was recognized early and she became the youngest person to ever receive a doctorate in math. She currently is a professor of math and her specialty is creating encryption algorithms.

Asia – 16

Asia was born on January 1st as all of the Super 7 were. She is only 16 and formed her first computer software company at only 12 years of age. She lives in Tokyo Japan with her parents. Her father formed his first software company in his early twenties. There is no computer network that her brilliant mind cannot hack into.

Nile a k a Ebony – 15

Nile was born on January 1st fifteen years ago in Ethiopia in Africa. She now lives in Cairo Egypt with her parents. She is considered the greatest female athlete ever born due to having set world records in numerous track and field events. Nile has already earned a doctorate in University and is an expert in over twenty languages. She has the ability to communicate with any animal through her telepathic mind. She is a professor of ancient languages and helps translate ancient texts.

Ice – 14

Ice was born on January 1st fourteen years ago and she now lives in the Arctic Circle with her parents who are scientists that study ancient ice cores. She is a genius in both biology and chemistry. Her best friend is her dog Wolfie a pure bred Husky.

Cherokee – 13

Cherokee was born January 1st thirteen years ago on a Native American reservation. She is regarded by the elders in her area as a natural Shawoman who has the ability to control the environment with only her thought. She can commune with all animals by mimicking the sounds they make and is proof many animals actually communicate through sounds.

Chiquita a k a Chica – 12

Chica was born January 1st only twelve years ago in a remote village in Mexico. She now lives in Mexico City with her parents and is often away in remote areas of Mexico with her grandfather. She is a natural healer who is already famous in her country for her ability to heal people of many illnesses. She has a natural understanding of herbal medicine and her touch can heal many types of illnesses.
